

DELEGATION TO CUBA

Race, Gender, and the Environment in Cuba

May 23-June 1, 2025

Witness for Peace
Solidarity Collective

ABOUT THIS DELEGATION

Join us on a journey to meet the diverse people of Cuba and learn about their history, successes, and challenges around the issues of race, gender, and environmentalism. How have concepts of race and identity evolved from the times when a million enslaved persons were forcibly brought to the island, through abolition, independence, and revolution, to ongoing attempts to end racism under socialism? What is the impact of the Family Code passed by referendum in 2022, in providing greater rights for women, same-sex couples, LGBTQ+ people, children, and elders? How does this island nation respond to climate change, pollution, and biodiversity loss? How can we act in solidarity with Cubans suffering under the decades-long U.S. trade blockade?

Cost: $2,400* + airfare + $100 visa

Delegation fee covers all meals, lodging, transportation, interpretation, and reading and activist tools

Application and $300 deposit due Feb 21, 2025

Sliding scale prices available from $1,800-$2,400. Payment Plans & Fundraising Support available upon request.*

Scan here for more

For more details contact: cuba@solidaritycollective.org

Be in contact for specific medical exemptions*